Riggs, McKenna Speakers At PTA Study Conference

The surface was hardly scratched on a weighty subject Thursday as doctors, educators, teachers and parents listened and discussed the "Emotional Health of the Child" at North-east Elementary School.

Dr. Wendell Riggs stated that preventative medicine have allowed more time for doctors and parents to be concerned with emotional health. Important to this health is (1) Continuity in care of the child-developing a closeness of parent and child (2) Consistency in treating the child the same under similar conditions and (3) Acknowledging the child as an individual. You begin to have problems when the child is deprived of his mother or deprived of basic needs.

Professor Frank McKenna stressed a family centered home rather than Child or Parent centered to develop healthy emotions. If a warm relationship exists the child will develop this relationship toward the world and vice versa. Healthy, well fed, rested, accepted children have fewer anger and frustration outbursts.

After lunch a film "Children's Emotions" was shown. The parental conflicts and attitudes toward their 7 year old son were obvious to us, the viewers. Likewise teachers may see emotional problems in their students that parents are blind to. Such a worthwhile program as this will help bring parents and teachers closer to solving emotional problems.

Fred Brooks, school Psychologist, told the purpose of testing and the tests used in our schools. Several are routine and other available if the child needs special testing.

Mrs. Kenneth Waggoner moderated a panel entitled "Our School and The Emotional Health of Our Children." Those participating were: David Casey, Rev. James Palmer, Mrs. Al Lewis, Mrs. Harold Davis, and Mrs. Charles Brown. One panelist suggested a better arrangement of words would have been "How the Emotional Health of the Child Affects the School." Fear looms in greater proportions in a child's life than adults wish to recognize. The fears change as the child matures they affect his responses in school. He only hides them more. Children need school for learning and associating. The teacher is the third person in a child's life—Father, Mother, and Teacher. Some children in special education classes have both physical and emotional handicaps. Many times the child by being placed in a class where he is accepted and can achieve at his own pace is able to alleviate the emotional problem that may have existed.

Northeast PTA, Mrs. J. L. Stamper, and her committees are to be commended for arranging an interesting and valuable program.

Truck Driver Fined

German D. Allen, 63, Indianapolis, was found guilty Friday of overweight by Judge Judge Francis N. Hamilton in the Putnam Circuit Court.

Allen was assessed a civil penalty of $331.20 and also fined $5 and costs.

He was recently arrested by State Trooper John Danberry on U. S. 36.

Waning Beauty

ST. LOUIS, Mo. UPI—The federal government's beautification program for Wharf Street has received a major setback.

About 20 trees planted by the U.S. Park Service to beautify the Mississippi River waterfront died because no one watered them.

CROP Director Local Speaker

State CROP director Gerald Wilson spoke before release time pupils, church leaders at a coffee in his honor, and local CWS and CROP leaders Thursday morning. The Christian Rural Overseas Program started in Europe in 1947 to alleviate the hunger and need after World War II. People of all denominations work together to serve a human need. Now the countries we served have like programs to help others. Our world food supply increased only 1 per cent while population increased 2 per cent. There is a famine now in India. CROP serves in 19 areas of the World.

A special emphasis is put on Friendship Acres at this time—planting time. Farmers or groups may designate the harvest from special acres to CROP. Present plans broaden to include Friendship Hours so laborers and professional people may give equivalent of an hour's work a week, or what ever they choose.

Indiana is proud to have ranked on top in CROP giving for the last three years. May we increase our efforts. Pledge your acres now. Rev. Stan Nicol will be Chairman of the CROP board aided by Vice-chairman, George Pike; Promotion Director, Robert Harvey; Publicity Director, Mrs. J. L. Stamper; Commodities Manager, Albert Avery and Campaign Director of Northern Putnam County, George Murphy. Floyd Yochum and Glenn Flint will co-chairman Friendship Acres. Volunteers are needed to help canvas.

Session Is Held By COP Directors

The board of directors of the COP Community Action Program met March 22 at the Clay County Courthouse. Art Zaring announced that the application forms—8 lengthy copies—were ready for mailing. The hat was passed to help defray the expenses of preparing and mailing these forms.

Mrs. Joe Ellis Jr. prepared a detailed application for a Headstart Program in Greencastle this summer. The Board of Directors approved the application and it will be sent through the proper channels immediately. In kind, contributions toward Headstart will be approximately $2195. in value so about $3910 will be needed from the government. Plans call for 8 weeks of half day sessions. Only children whose school success hinges on this pretraining will be enrolled.

Residents of the Coalmont community are working to prepare an application which will include the building of a Community Center to relieve unemployment and provide facilities for training classes.

The Friends of Youth Foundation Board has given permission to use their 210 acres for work camp experience to aid youth who may be potential drop-outs. Albert Avery is steering these plans and ready to fill in the proper application.

All project applications must be presented in detail to the board and given approval by vote before submitting for

Youth Suffers Serious Injury

State police reported this morning that Ricardo Frazier, 16, Quincy, Route 1, was seriously injured when he fell from the left rear fender of an automobile in Cloverdale Friday night.

Police said Frazier was riding on the back of a 1963 Ford being driven by Elmer Whicker, 19, Spencer, Route 2.

The accident occurred in front of the Sutherland Shell Station, in Cloverdale, on Ind. 43.

Trooper Ted Settle investigated the accident and reported that Frazier was taken to the Putnam County Hospital and then transferred to Robert Long Hospital in Indianapolis.

The youth was said to have suffered a skull fracture and possible brain damage. He was unconscious, police said.

Filing Is Over For Candidates

Final candidates filing for the May primaries before the Thursday midnight deadline included the following:

Democrat
Precinct Committeeman
Virgil A. Walter, North Fourth

Republican
Trustee
Eugene McFarland, Monroe Township.

County Council
Edwin Brown, First District
Justice of the Peace
B. D. Peterson, Cloverdale Twp.

Advisory Board
Gifford Black, North Third
Two candidates, who had previously filed, withdrew before the deadline for precinct committeeman. They were NaDean Silvery, North Greencastle, and Thomas J. Miller, South Clinton. Jesse Ratts is running for the Cloverdale Township Advisory Board instead of trustee as previously announced.

City Dump Is Indeed A Problem

By FRANK PUCKETT, JR.
Banner Reporter

Have you ever visited the community's dump site? I seriously doubt if the majority of the public has taken a tour of the place, but it might prove beneficial if they did.

The dump is located about one-eighth mile west of town off South Jackson Street. You can easily tell it. There will be trash and papers blown across the road about 500 feet before you get there, maybe trash thrown in the road or a piece of old furniture dumped in the driveway. Or you might not even get there because of the traffic taking people from all over the county back and forth with their trash loads. Yep, that's right, the community taxpayers pay for the dump and everyone and his brother uses it.

So, now that you have seen the place, shake your head and see what a mess we claim as the city's dump, you ask how in the world such a thing could exist. It's a long story.

A few years back the city decided they needed a new site for the community to use as a dump. Somehow they came up with some lots on the southwest side of town owned by a gentleman named Russell Fox. Fox kindly said the city could use the land, but forbid the buying. Since he wouldn't enter into a signed contract and the only stipulation he made on the land was that the city keep the dump under regulation, it was decided to use the lots with just a verbal agreement. Thus Fox had fill at no cost and the city had a dump at no cost.

Someone was needed to care for the site now so action was promptly taken and two men were hired for $40 a week and rights to all salvage they obtained. Things went fine for the project until one of the men decided to quit. The city then made an agreement with the remaining employee on the same basis and gave him $25 a week. This situation didn't last long, as the dissatisfied employee reportedly became lax and had to be relieved of his duties. The city's problem then was that they couldn't find anyone to take the job.

After a few months of frustration they turned to Street Commissioner Clyde Miller. Miller reluctantly agreed to take the job as caretaker of the dump and add it to his already demanding schedule, but it wasn't long before things began to look mighty dull. Miller's schedule wouldn't allow him to stand guard over the site and regulate dumping, thus he was forced to visit the dump on occasions, clean it up a little and push things back. Before many months passed, the work became too much for Miller's limited equipment and he was forced to call on a local contractor to do the job.

The contractor had the equipment big enough to do the job, but the cost was big enough, too. He operated at $16.95 an hour plus hauling cost of moving his equipment back and forth, but no one could say anything because the price was fair. One job the contractor did cost the taxpayers $292. Last year the taxpayers spent $1445 cleaning up the dump.

Practically fifteen hundred dollars spent and we still didn't have any regulation of dumping. This year we have already spent over four hundred dollars and we're in the same sad shape. And what is even worse, we still have just a verbal agreement that could cease to exist anytime and leave the city abruptly without a dump.

Astronauts Hold News Conference

SPACE CENTER, Houston UPI—America will learn today what it feels like to be tossed in space from the only two men who really know — astronauts Neil Armstrong and David Scott.

The two will hold a news conference at noon EST today at the Manned Spacecraft Center near Houston.

They were expected to tell how they regained control of the tumbling Gemini 8 after a thruster stuck open. The spewing thruster caused their spacecraft to go into a violent rolling and bucking pattern 185 miles above earth.

U. S. Marines Make New Landing In Viet

SAIGON UPI—U. S. Marines stormed ashore today from landing craft and planes of the U. S. 7th Fleet in a bold landing at the mouth of the Saigon

River, just 20 miles southeast of the capital.

The Marines seized commanding positions on the Long Thanh peninsula at the mouth of the river traveled by ships en route to Saigon.

The landing was completed without serious enemy opposition. The Marines seized a beachhead 6 miles wide and a mile deep on the tip of the peninsula, which juts into the South China Sea.

Five-inch shells from a U. S. destroyer "softened up" one of the Marine landing zones.

The landing area is backed by inland waterways and dense mangrove swamps.

More Troops To South Viet Nam

WASHINGTON UPI—Several more infantry battalions are going to Viet Nam to meet the U. S. manpower commitments outlined earlier this month.

Marine and Army units are involved. Indications are the 1st Marine Division and the Army's 25th Infantry Division will be brought to near full strength.

The Defense Department said Friday that congressional testimony by Navy Secretary Paul H. Nitze had led to "speculation" about additional Marine units, although he did not say specifically that "any units are being sent to Viet Nam."

Both Defense and Navy officials said Nitze's statement was not contrary to Pentagon policy on commenting on specific movements only after troops reach Viet Nam.

May Recognize Outer Mongolia

WASHINGTON UPI—The United States is considering diplomatic recognition for Outer Mongolia, a move its advocates say would improve American posture in Asia.

While no early decision to extend recognition is expected, some officials believe it would give American Asian policy a boost since it would be the first time the United States had recognized a Communist Asian country.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk said Friday that recognition is "one of the items on our agenda" and it has been considered from "time to time." He gave no indication, however, of any immediate move to do so.

INDIANAPOLIS — Net savings of the Indiana Farm Bureau Cooperative Association, Inc. topped $5.5 million in 1965.

President DeMain Warner, Goshen, announced that the cooperative's 1965 savings were the highest in the history of the organization. Mr. Warner spoke at the co-op's 39th annual meeting at the Claypool Hotel.

Almost 1,500 farmers and other guests, including a delegation from Putnam County, attended the I.F.B.C.A. annual banquet at the Indiana Roof Ballroom.

M. R. Bradley, secretary-treasurer, reported that savings increased by almost $1.5 million to $5,628,597. The increase occurred despite a decline in total net sales of 4.5 per cent to $169,580,604.

Chiefly responsible for the decline were Indiana's sharply reduced wheat harvest and the large amount of soybeans which remained in storage on farms and in country elevators last fall.

In 1965 the I.F.B.C.A. and its subsidiary, Farm Bureau Oil Co., paid or accrued for taxes $1,184,500. This includes local property taxes of $539,900, state taxes of $543,900, and federal income taxes of $200,800.

The I.F.B.C.A. markets grain, wool, and eggs to provide farm supplies such as gasoline, plant food, livestock feed, and lumber to 85 local farmer-owned co-ops. These local co-ops, including the Putnam County Farm Bureau Co-op, own the state association.

Putnam County representatives at the meeting included: Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ader, Mr. and Mrs. James Risk, Mr. and Mrs. James Hockema, Mr. Willis Clodfelter, and Mr. Morris Evans.

Guy Gaston was the voting delegate of the Putnam County Farm Bureau Co-op.

Nazi Sentenced

BERLIN UPI — The East German Supreme Court has sentenced Horst Fischer, a doctor at the Auschwitz concentration camp, to death.

Fischer was found guilty of selecting 70,000 inmates, including women and children, for extermination in gas chambers at Auschwitz when he was camp doctor from November, 1942, until January, 1945.

Depressing Incident

DALLAS UPI—Hulsie Lumley, 17, had an accident Friday and lost his car. It hit a fire-plug and almost disappeared.

The water from the knocked over plug made the street cave in and by the time water officials had turned the plug the car was hood-deep below street level.

2 Missiles Are Fired Successfully

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif., UPI—A Titan 2 intercontinental ballistic missile and a Nike-Javelin combination were launched successfully within seconds of each other Friday down the Western Test Range.

An Air Force spokesman said preliminary reports indicated that the missile was on course for a preselected target area in the Pacific.

The missile blasted off from its launch pad at 1:42 a.m. PST. Seconds later a probe employing a Nike-Javelin combination followed.

It was the second launch in the HITAB High Altitude Background and Signal To Noise program, whose preliminary objectives were the investigation and measurement of infra-red radiation and emission characteristics associated with missile exhaust fumes and other exhaust products during the powered phase of rocket-lifted vehicles.

Approve Great Society Funds

WASHINGTON UPI—The House Appropriations Committee Friday approved a $2.5 billion money bill to carry some federal functions through June 30 and to give a limited start to two more Great Society programs.

Approval came with committee expressions of frustration at rising welfare costs despite prosperity and antipoverty spending—and a school aid program which killed President Johnson's call for some cut-backs.

On welfare, the committee pledged an extra $381 million to the public assistance program for states which has reached $3.6 billion for the fiscal year ending June 30.

Limited funds were doled out to launch the Johnson rent subsidy and Teacher Corps programs, two Great Society programs which failed to get financing last year.

Bible Thought

Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise. Proverbs 20:1.

Why should Christians be deceived? Wine and strong drink are a deadly enemy. They are devices of Satan. Why accept their ugliness, their misery, their defeat, doom?

Anti-Yankee Mobs

BUENOS AIRES UPI—Police used tear gas and nightsticks Friday night to disperse Communist mobs staging anti-American demonstrations in central Buenos Aires. There was no report of casualties.

Demonstrators carrying cards with such slogans as "Yankee Go Home" swarmed through the streets outside the San Martin Theater, where a meeting of the Inter-American Economic and Social Council opens today, and the information office of the Organization of American States.

In Memory

In loving memory of Lois P. Steele, who passed away March 27, 1965.

A light is from our household gone,
A voice we loved is stilled.
A place is vacant in our homes
Which never can be filled.
If we could make steps out of our heartaches
And use our teardrops too,
We would build a stairway to heaven
And climb it each day to see you.

Sadly missed by Mother, Sister, Children and Grandchildren

In Memory

In loving memory of Cleo Hope, who left us, March 26, 1965.

She wished no one a last farewell
Or even said goodbye
She was gone before we knew it

Only God knows why
The blow was so severe
That deep inside our aching hearts

There falls an endless tear.

TV In Review

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD UPI — I've been sitting here for the last week, looking at next season's television schedule, wondering what in the world to say about it, when all of a sudden the answer came Monday night in the Lucille Ball show.

Miss Ball's CBS-TV half-hour offered a comedy reprise of the defunct series her company once produced, "The Untouchables," and there, all at once, was a clue to the current state of television:

There isn't a series on the networks today that is as good as "The Untouchables" was, and it's not too likely there will be anything better than the old crime show in the coming season either, with one possible exception.

That hopeful entry is tentatively titled "ABC Stage '66," or something like it — they keep changing the name — and it promises to present a combination of original plays and musicals, as well as top documentaries. Since ABC-TV didn't keep its word to put on a series of original one-hour dramas in anthology form this season, the network probably feels somewhat committed to deliver in the next one, but it's a long, long time from March to September, and the days grow short when you can't get a rating, as the song says.

So anyway, there was "The Untouchables" parody Monday night, and there was Robert Stack in his old role of the crimebuster (Elliot Ness it was), and there was Bruce

SOUTH PUTNAM COMMUNITY SCHOOL CORPORATION
LEGAL NOTICE
Sealed proposals or bids will be received by the Board of Trustees of the South Putnam Community School Corporation at the office of said corporation on the third floor of the Court House in the City of Greencastle, Indiana, until 10:00 a.m. EST, on April 1, 1966, for the purchase of the following described evidence of indebtedness of said school corporation:

Notes of 1965: Total Issue $100,000.00 date April 1, 1965; bearing interest at a rate not to exceed 5 per cent per annum (the exact rate to be determined by bidding). Both principal and interest payable on or before June 30, 1966.

Bidders for said notes shall be required to name the rate of interest which the note is to bear, not exceeding 5 per cent per annum. Such interest rate must be in multiples of 1/4 of 1 per cent and not more than one interest rate shall be named by each bidder. The evidence of indebtedness will be awarded to the highest qualified bidder whose bid is submitted in accordance herewith. The highest bidder will be the one who offers the lowest interest cost to the corporation, to be determined by computing the total interest on the evidence of indebtedness at its maturity and deducting therefrom the premium bid, if any. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids. If an acceptable bid is not received at the time fixed for sale, the sale will be continued for a period of not to exceed 30 days thereafter, but in the event of the continuation of such sale he no bid is accepted which is higher than the lowest bid received at the time fixed for the sale of said bonds. No conditional bids will be considered.

Bids shall be in sealed envelopes marked "Bids for Temporary Loan 1966," and each bidder submitting a bid shall submit an affidavit herewith stating that no collusion exists between himself and any other bidder for such loan.

Dated, March 14, 1966

Secretary, Board of Trustees
James Giddings.

Gordon in his onetime part as a hoodlum (Frank Nitti it used to be). And when you can start getting nostalgic over a series in which people were killed off as fast as television shows, you know something is slightly askew today.

The thing about "The Untouchables" is that it had genuine style, a fact that seemed to gall the attacking do-gooders who, as usual, couldn't — or wouldn't — understand that something can be done well without necessarily doing good. Every time there is a rerun of "The Untouchables" on a local station, and I have the choice between watching it and a routine network entry, the network loses out. The same whenever there is a rerun of Richard Boone in the Western "Have Gun, Will Travel."

I am not a bloodthirsty soul, but style is so sorely missing on the networks nowadays because of the emphasis on the brats in the audience, that a fellow welcomes adult actors who perform with a flair and professionalism.

No series has ever had more consistently excellent character acting than "The Untouchables" did. People were killed gorgeously — plunging down elevator shafts, flopping in beer alongside bullet-riddled vets (I think). There was more style in the death on "The Untouchables" than there is in the life on "The Beverly Hillsbillies." Anyone who wears a carnation in his lapel can't be all bad.

Chicago To Get New Snowfall

By United Press International

A cold front that cut through the Midwest triggered snow and hazardous driving warnings along the western shore of Lake Michigan today. Chicago was expected to get up to four inches of snow by morning.

The cleanup and counting of victims continued in the wake of a two-day blizzard that was blamed for at least 43 deaths in the upper Midwest.

South Dakota Gov. Nils Boe asked President Johnson Friday to declare 44 counties in his state disaster areas as the result of the two massive March blizzards.

A freak snow storm buried Conneaut, in the northeastern corner of Ohio on Lake Erie, under 18 inches of snow Friday with more expected. Conneaut schools closed at noon and highway crews fought to keep roads open. Areas only five miles away were spared the snow.

The cold front which brought the snow to Chicago was anchored in central Illinois at one end, sweeping south to northern Texas and west to Colorado.

Indira Gandhi Sees DeGaulle

PARIS—NPI—Indiana Prime Minister Mrs. Indira Gandhi arrived from New Delhi Friday for talks with President Charles de Gaulle before she visited the United States.

Mrs. Gandhi, who was lunching later with DeGaulle, was greeted at the airport by French Minister of State Louis Joxe, Indian Ambassador to Paris Rajeshwar Dayal and U.S. Ambassador Charles H. Bohlen.

Mrs. Gandhi also was greeted by her two sons, Rajeev, 20, and Sanjay, 19, who flew in earlier this morning from London, where they are students. She was scheduled to continue to the United States Sunday aboard a special jet being sent to Paris by President Johnson.

Hatlo's They'll Do It Every Time

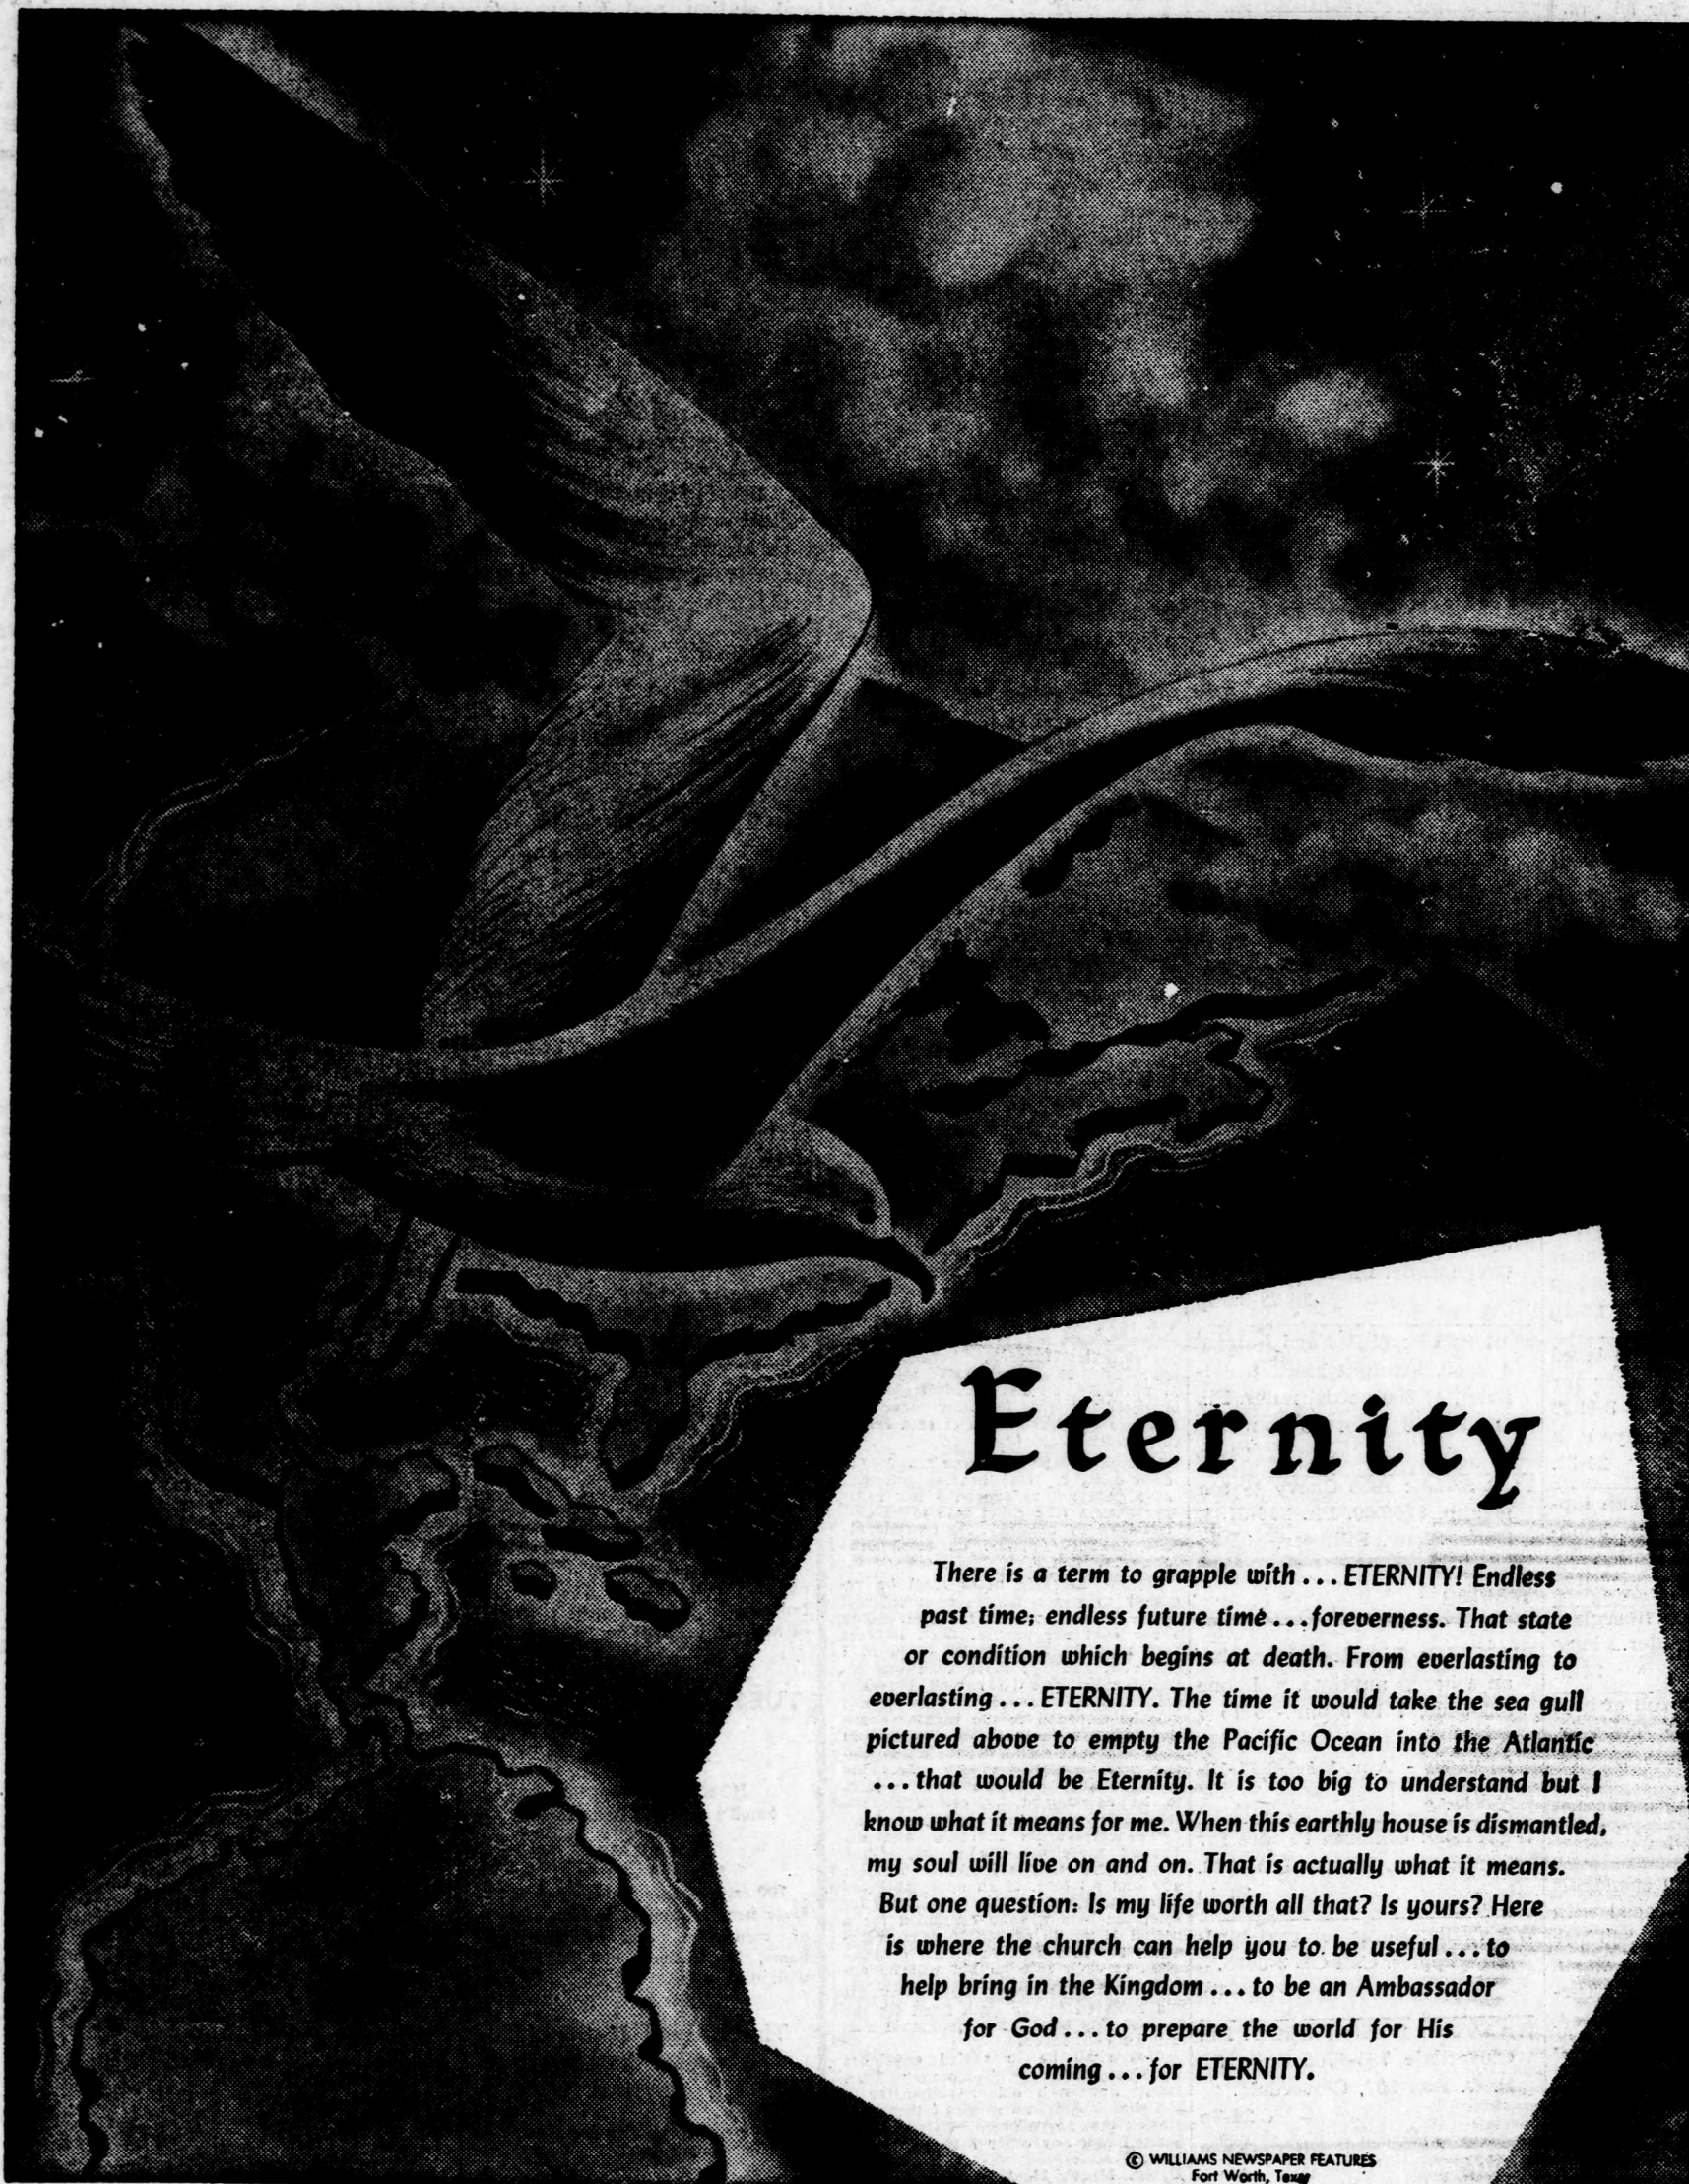

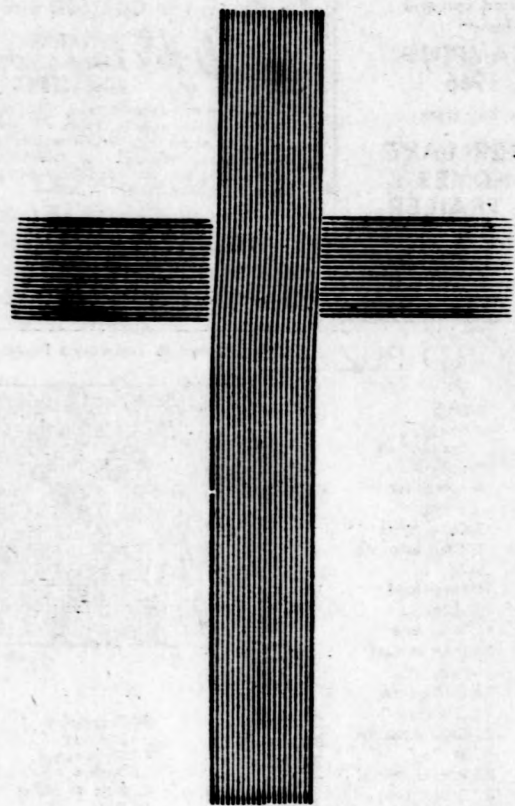

RAMONA'S HUSBAND DROVE HER TO THE SOOPER MART AND MADE HER PROMISE TO HURRY UP... NO DAWDLING OR GABBING...

WHERE IS HE? WHY, FANNING THE BREEZE WITH ANOTHER TOWN CHARACTER... AND JUST WARMING UP AT THAT...

CHILBLAIN! YOU SAID YOU HAD TO GET RIGHT HOME!

...THEY DON'T MAKE 'EM LIKE TONY AND DEMPSEY NO MORE! HEY! DID I EVER TELL YOU ABOUT THE LONGEST FIGHT I EVER SAW? WELL

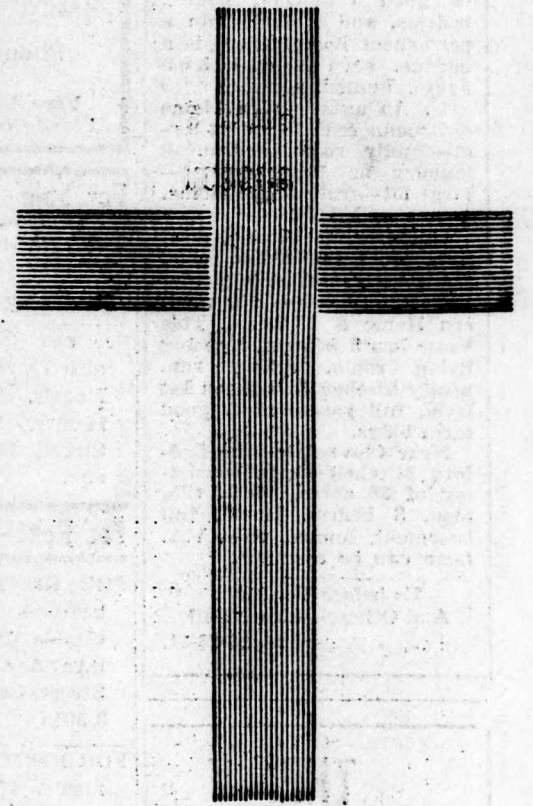

To prepare your life for Eternity serve the Lord.

Eternity

There is a term to grapple with ... ETERNITY! Endless past time; endless future time ... foreverness. That state or condition which begins at death. From everlasting to everlasting ... ETERNITY. The time it would take the sea gull pictured above to empty the Pacific Ocean into the Atlantic ... that would be Eternity. It is too big to understand but I know what it means for me. When this earthly house is dismantled, my soul will live on and on. That is actually what it means. But one question: Is my life worth all that? Is yours? Here is where the church can help you to be useful ... to help bring in the Kingdom ... to be an Ambassador for God ... to prepare the world for His coming ... for ETERNITY.
